D TO KNOW IN LIFE,

ME BY MR. FEENY

“See, it’s not enough to leave school and just desire to succeed in this cold, cruel world. Because then you’ve simply become a part of it. You must also have the desire to change it. And to change it, you’ll need your fine mind, and his good heart.”

“Sometimes a sure thing is not the best thing.”

“Believe in
yourselves,
dream, try.
Do good.”

“We live in
a random
and chaotic
universe.”

“You don’t
have to be
blood to be
family.”

“Sometimes the things you complain most about,
are things you care most about. Unfortunately, we don’t always know that until it’s too late.”

“I love you
all. Class
dismissed.”

“Gutenberg’s generation thirsted for a new book every six months! Your generation gets a new web page every 6 seconds. And how do you use this technology? To try and beat King Koopa, and rescue the princess. Shame on you.
You deserve what you get.”

“Ok, the
party’s over.
I’ll see you at
my funeral.”

“Good morning, Miss
Lawrence, Mr.
Matthews, Mr. Hunter...
If there’s anything you need to talk about, my door is always open.
I’m not here to judge.”

“Friendship for example, is a real
gift. It’s given with no expectations and
no gratitude is needed, not between
real friends.”

“There is no
greater
aspiration than
to have love in our lives.”

“I can do whatever I want, I have
the megaphone.”

“Unfortunately we live in a society where they tell us we have to look a certain way, so we’re all under pressure to live up to unrealistic expectations.”

“I realize that all you seventh-graders are delicate adolescent
flowers just beginning
your high school
blooming so I say this
with upmost sensitivity.
Take this test or die.”

“I believe that when you find love, you
hold on to it and
cherish it because
there is nothing
finer, and it may
never come again.”

“But, to me, a real
hero is someone
who does the right
thing, when the
right thing isn’t the easy thing to do.”

“If you let people’s perception of you
dictate your
behavior, you will never grow as a
person.”
