

THE 20 ROL

EVERYONE SHOULD

RULES THAT

WOULD LIVE BY

1. Relationships are an amazing part of life, but they are in no way the be all and end all of life.

2. It's okay to admit that you're young, fab and
NOT broke.
Celebrate your SUCCESS.

3. Don't waste time crying over relationships that end badly. Some day you will find the one special person and then all that happened before then will just seem stupid. Some of those wasted relationships will be hot and unforgettable, but none the less, stupid.

4. It's ok to be
22 or even 32 or
42 and not know
what you want to be when you
grow up.

5. Many people will try to judge your spending and life style habits, don't let it get to you. It's your life, your money and no one else's business.

6. If you like being single, it's okay to admit that.

Maybe you like being alone. Maybe you like just dating and hooking up.

Everyone likes these things and the world has no problem with it. Don't feel guilty for not wanting a relationship just yet.

7. In business it's likely that men twice your age with half your brain capacity will be making triple the money that you do. Work hard anyway, never give up, you are the brain and voice of tomorrow.

8. Your parents already lived a bulk of their life. It's time to start living yours. It is possible to both respect them and be happy. Sometimes they may get mad at your choices, make those choices anyway, they love you and will eventually come around.

9. It's okay to order extra
cheese on your
fries and not go
to the gym
after.

10. No matter how old you are by number, never forget what it feels like to be young and alive.

11. People are always going to talk, so just do your thing. You may as well give them something to talk about.

12. Don't let anyone make you feel bad for having a good time. You work hard all week and deserve time to get your party on.

13. Don't keep company with those who constantly
compare themselves
to you. Keep company
with those who love
you for you and
enhance your life.

14. If you can't find your prince,
there is nothing
wrong with enjoying kissing
all the wrong
frogs.

15. Live your life
for you; not your parents, not a relationship, not your friends. It is the only way you
will ever truly be happy.

16. You are never too old
to learn something new.

17. In your life you will wind up with a select few friends who are more like your soul mates. Cherish them, they'll be the ones around when the party is over.

18. You're going to make mistakes; the wrong career, the wrong major, the wrong boyfriend/girlfriend. Everything happens for a reason; you'll learn something, recover and come back better than ever.

19. Live each day
with no regrets.

Don't fret over
the past, even the
bad parts shape
us for the future.

20. Never forget
what you stand
for. People will try to shake you,
but if you stand
your ground, you
can't go wrong.
